Our discussion will include, but not be limited to, cremation legal issues, working with difficult families, wage and hour issues, organ and tissue donation, unclaimed remains, avoiding anti-trust charges, answering price shoppers and compliance with other federal regulations.

We'll also talk about how you can avoid being caught in a "sting" and review some key FTC compliance issues including package pricing. Ample time will be provided for questions from the audience.

All participants will receive a handbook including a wide variety of documents that can be used at your funeral home.

For a tuition fee far less than what you would pay for one hour of consultation from a leading Massachusetts law firm, you'll receive three hours of advice, counsel and direction from the recognized National leader in funeral service law along with dinner with your colleagues.

The Massachusetts Funeral Directors Association is the recognized voice and resource for information, expertise and opinion on issues affecting the funeral service profession.
